Officials Take Office

With the retirement of Messrs. Fraser and Taylor from the Board of Trustees last Monday evening and the seating of F. R. Bechdolt and T. B. Reardon in their places, the first business was the election of a new presiding officer, which honor was bestowed upon Mrs E. K. deSabla.

Upon taking the chair, the Mayor announced that she would not then assign the commissionerships, preferring to first discuss matters with all the Trustees at an informal meeting.

Miss Saidee Van Brower and L. S. Slevin were sworn in as Clerk and Treasurer respectively.

The following communication was spread upon the minutes of the old board:

F. E. Wood, Accountant
Monterey, Cal., April 10

Board of Trustees,
City of Carmel-by-the-Sea.
Gentlemen;

As requested, through your City Clerk, I have audited the city books through March 31, 1920, and find them to be correct in all particulars.

I wish to commend both the City Clerk and City Treasurer upon the accuracy and neatness with which their books have been kept.

For your information I am attaching a summary of receipts and disbursements from the time the books were first opened up to and including March 31, 1920.

I am also attaching a form of reconciliation as between the Clerk's books and the Treasurer's books. I offer the suggestion that such a form be made up each month so that said officers may themselves know at each closing period that their books agree.

Very respectfully yours,
F. E. Wood

Addressing the new board, concerning the retention of the Marshal, G. F. Beardsley said:

"I may say, and I think that you will agree with me, that the principal issue in this election was the retention of the efficient patrol of the town maintained by the present Marshal.

"It is to be hoped that the new board will not reduce that efficiency by materially adding to his duties or permit any harassing of any kind."

A remarkably smooth and finished performance was that given by the Carmel players last Friday night in Augustin Daly's comedy, "A Night Off." Where He Stands

Carmel, Cal., April 20

Mr. W. L. Overstreet,
Editor, Carmel Pine Cone.

My dear sir:

Noting the letter relative to civic affairs which you published April 1st, I trust you will publish these few comments from one who must frankly say he doesn't agree with it.

For instance, the writer naively remarks that 'Carmel has little money." This at once suggests the question, are we doing anything to attract people who have money? No, one of the essentials necessary to accomplish that is good streets, and the proposition for paving our main street was voted down.

Not only that, but a large number of people, who, if we provided good streets, would visit here and incidentally leave considerable money, are prevented from doing so and are driven away on account of our lack of streets.

Will the party whose elegant touring car required to be hauled out of a chasm on one of the main corners of town a few days ago be likely to return?

Regarding the suggestion of "make shift streets and incessant patching," this "creed" might have been the slogan in the city of Pumpkin Corners one hundred years ago, but Zounds! would any place "fall for it" in this day and age?

Why not rather bear in mind some of the fine little towns of our State where the people are practically unanimous in the desire to provide only civic requirements of the highest grade, and would bear to nothing else. When such a town is visited the look of prosperity and comfort is plainly evident.

Coming in contact with many strangers, who volunteer remarks on civic affair, it is evident that the consensus of opinion is that we have the reputation all over the country of being a "jay town" and a sort of a joke.

Of course, the majority should have what they desire, and if the above is it, the trustees don't need to be bothered, as they have it alright as it is

Yours as before

Just Where and How Is the Money to be Spent?

A businesslike Answer to a businesslike Question

THIRTY denominations cooperating in the Interchurch World Movement have budgeted their needs. No business could have done it more scientifically.

They have united to prevent the possibility of duplication or waste. At least a million dollars will be saved by the fact that thirty individual campaigns are joined in one united effort.

Each denomination has arranged its budget under six main heads:

1 FOR THE CHURCH'S WORK AT HOME. A score of items come under this head. Consider only one. Five and a half million people in the United States cannot even read and write the English language. Who is to carry forward this vast work of Americanization if the church does not?

2 FOR HOSPITALS AND HOMES. Every year thousands of men and women seriously ill are turned away from Church hospitals because of lack of room. The children's homes are compelled to turn away more children than they can receive.

3 FOR HIGHER EDUCATION. Of the 450,000 American students in institutions of higher grade, one-half are in institutions founded and supported by the Churches. Many of these institutions have had no great endowment campaigns, but their needs are just as pressing as the needs of larger schools; and you have only to read their list of alumni and alumnae to measure the value of their contribution to America.

4 FOR RELIGIOUS TRAINING. At least 12,000,000 children and young people under 25 years of age are entering American life without any religious training at all. Remembering the faith of Washington and Lincoln, do you think that America will continue to produce Washingtons and Lincolns if faith dies out of the hearts of its youth?

5 FOR THE CHURCH'S WORK ABROAD. Influenza came first from the Orient thirty years ago; nearly all plagues are Oriental plagues. So long as China has only one physician to every 400,000 people the Orient will continue to be a menace. So long as one-third of the babies of India die before their second year our own babies are not safe. A Christian doctor or teacher sent abroad is working for America as truly as though he worked at home.

6 PREACHERS' SALARIES. The preacher is called the "forgotten man," and well he may be. Eight out of ten preachers are paid less than $20 a week!

Each denomination has its own detailed budget, and will administer its own funds. Your pastor has copies of the budget: examine them for yourself. In the week of April 25th-May 2nd you will be given your opportunity to help. You can do it with the full satisfaction of knowing that every dollar of your gift has its post assigned to it in advance.

Every dollar for better America and a better world. When your church calls on you give—and give with your heart as well as your pocket-book.

A Needed Institution

The management of the Business & Legal Security Co. announces its incorporation in this issue of the Pine Cone.

It is a company with a capital stock of $50,000 fully subscribed by Peninsula people, and it has been empowered by the State, among other things, to accept escrows, to act as trustee under deeds of trust, as examiner and abstracter of titles, to issue certificates of title, to handle estates, and to act as general agents and attorney-in fact in business and legal transactions.

As its employees are bonded and their competency and honesty warranted, the clients of the concern are safe-guarded against loss. The organization of this company fills a long felt need, as there is no corporation of this character on the Monterey Peninsula, and it should successful.

William H. Chadney, a former government official residing in Monterey, has been selected as manager, and Herbert Heron is the company's Carmel representative. Argyll Campbell has been retained as general counsel.

Search Concert Sunday

Our lovers of classic music were so delighted by the superb program recently played by Frederick Preston Search and assisting artists at the Highlands that insistent requests have arisen for repetition in Carmel. In consequence a Sunday afternoon concert will be given this week end (April 24, 3 o'clock) at Manzanita Hall.

A most extraordinary program will be rendered, including Bruch's "Kol Nidrie," by the 'cellist; Tschaikowski's marvelously beautiful "Andante" (Fifth Symphony by the quintet; violin solo, "Hungarian Rhapsody," by Hauser; flute solo, "The Wind," and other charming selections. Mr. Search's own "Berceuse," Slumber Song, now played by musical organizations as a prime favorite in various arrangements, will be effectively heard in new quintet form.

Weather permitting, the Carmel Bird Club will picnic near Carmel River Bridge tomorrow noon. If the day is not suitable for outdoor work, the club will meet with Mrs. McDowell in the Kelsey cottage, North Monte Verde street, at the usual time in the afternoon.

Those who enjoy thrilling narratives may be well entertained with the accounts of missionary activities in Africa, given by members of the Carmel Missionary Society next Wednesday afternoon at Grey Gables. Friends and strangers cordially invited.
